

WAKEFIELD BEASLEY TO DESIGN GLENLAKE II OFFICE BUILDING

ATLANTA, Ga. - Wakefield Beasley & Associates Architects, Inc., the award winning Atlanta architectural firm, has been awarded a contract to design the Glenlake II office building, a 350,000-square-foot, 14-story office building with a six-level parking deck in Sandy Springs, Ga.

Architect Sasha Vinitsky, director of Wakefield Beasley's Commercial Studio, said the class-A office facility is estimated at a cost $40 million construction cost.

Vinitsky said the facility will serve as the new world headquarters of Newell Rubbermaid and will consolidate its existing offices.

The building is located at the intersection of Abernathy Rd. and Glenlake Parkway and is a development of Greenstone Properties.

Headquartered in suburban Atlanta, with an office in Jacksonville, Florida, Wakefield Beasley & Associates Architects Inc. is a leading Southeastern architectural and interior design firm. Founded in 1980 by Richard Lamar Wakefield and John B. Beasley, Jr., the firm provides master planning, architecture, interior design, program management, construction management, furniture procurement and facilities management services.
